

Halloween is here!

It is always a great idea to use English traditions to work on vocabulary and cultural aspects. In Garbí Obert, teachers and students have celebrated it with special activities: writing spooky stories, playing themed board-games, doing crafts, learning songs and poems, etc.

Have a look at the pictures to know more about this fantastic week.

